9. Travel & Accommodation information

How to get to Santiago del Estero:

Santiago del Estero has a domestic airport with one daily flight from and to Buenos Aires.

Firstly, one of the possibilities in order to get to Santiago del Estero from other countries is to arrive to Buenos Aires on an international flight, and then you must change of airport, from the international to the domestic airport, call it Aeroparque, in order to get a domestic flight to Santiago del Estero. One and half hours later you will be landing at Santiago del Estero's airport that is located only 7km away from the venue.

Moreover, another possibility is to get a flight from Buenos Aires to Tucumán's airport. Tucuman city is 90 minutes by car from Santiago del Estero. Tucuman has 3 regular flights from and to Buenos Aires each day. Tucumán also has all the services needed to get to Santiago del Estero, like Rent a Car agency or many Buses Company.

Other possibilities are to come to Argentina from other important cities of South America like is Santiago in Chile or Sao Pablo in Brazil on direct flight to Cordoba.

Cordoba is an important city in Argentina and it has an international airport where you can rent a car or van because it has all the car rent company. It's around 4 hours car driving from Santiago del Estero, or you can get the Bus service too. The Buses depart from the bus stations in Cordoba's downtown, where you can find a lot of bus companies which cover this distance.

The organization can provide the shuttle between the airports in Buenos Aires. This part of the travel is a little bit problematic, because the domestic airport is 1 hour or 1 and half hour drive distance depending de traffic conditions in Buenos Aires. We strongly recommend take our security and comfortable service of Transfer between the airports in Buenos Aires when you go and return, for only USD 10 per persons each trip. To book the Transfer, please contact to the organization by completing the form of the Appendix 2 and returning it to this e-mail address: sxargentina@gmail.com before the 25th August 2014. Payments must be made to the organization of event upon arrival to the venue; in cash (only by American dollar or Euros) before number plates are distributed.
