12. ABOUT ROCK HILL

Rock Hill, South Carolina is a business-savvy blend of historic charm and responsibly implemented expansion. The city is located in the north-central area of South Carolina approximately 20 miles south of Charlotte, NC along the I-77 corridor. Rock Hill is a growing community of 67,000 residents, and the City encompasses over 36 square miles. Rock Hill is the largest city in York County, SC and the only major South Carolina city in the Charlotte metro area.

Rock Hill earned its name in 1852, when the Charlotte/Columbia/Augusta Railroad line was being constructed through the area. Rail crews encountered a small, flinty hill and dubbed the spot “Rock Hill.” A U.S. Post Office was established during that year, marking the official beginning of the city.

The railroad brought business into the area which thrived as a result. The village was incorporated in 1892.

Rock Hill's City Hall was dedicated in 1992 and a time capsule was buried in front of the building. The time capsule is to be opened in the year 2092.

The logo of Rock Hill was developed in December 1992, with a great deal of focus spent on the philosophy behind the design. Each arrow represents the six themes on which the city’s future was built:

- Business
- Education
- Historic Preservation
- Gardens & Environment
- Arts & Culture
- Transportation & Utilities

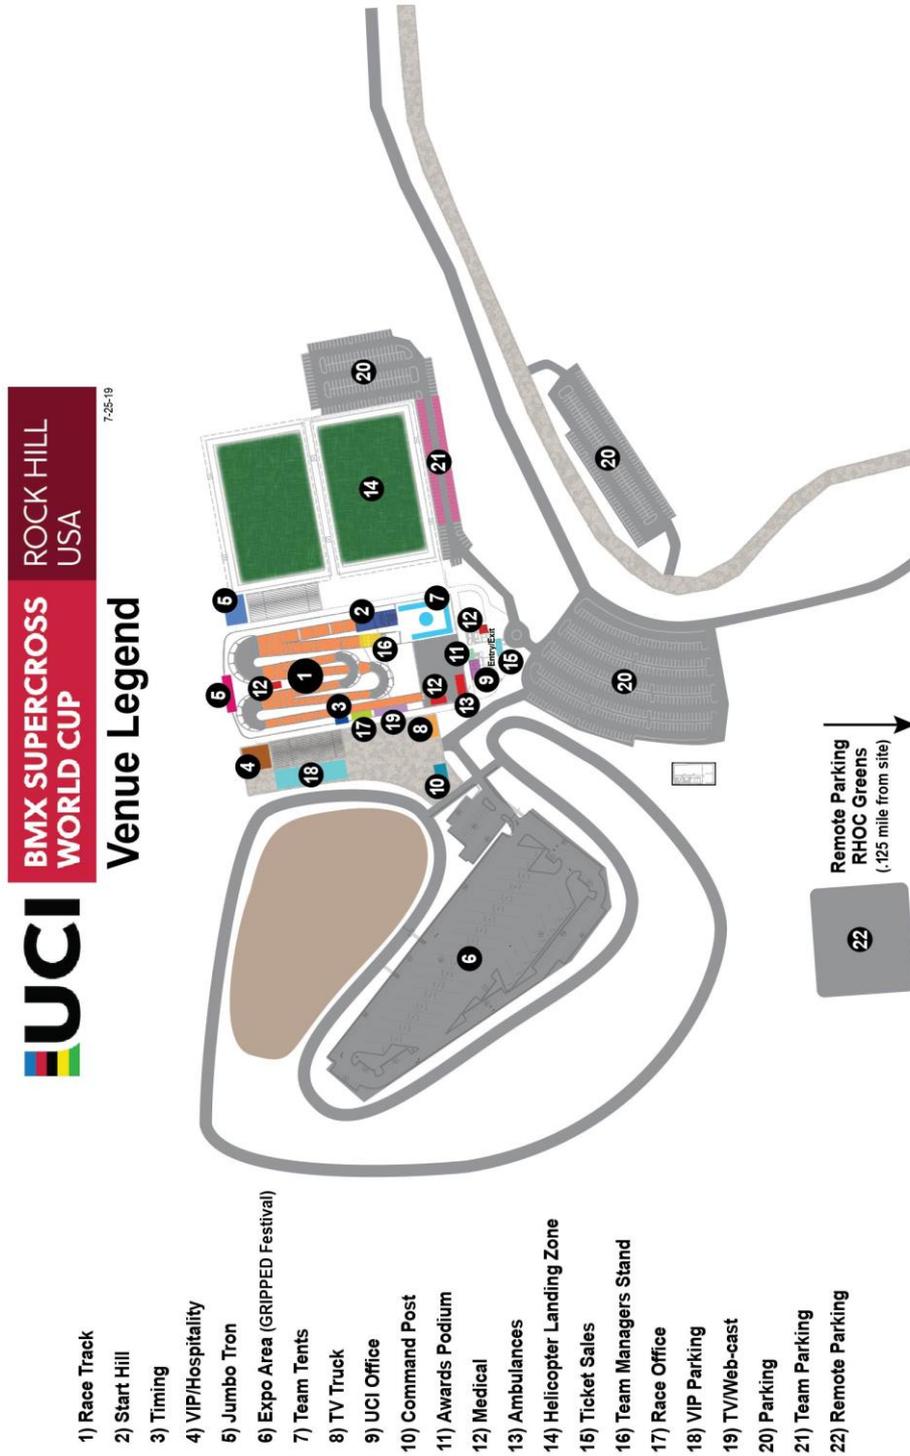

The six arrows work toward a central focus and draw strength from their common direction and purpose. Each arrow, or theme, is strong in its own right, but gathers more strength by meeting the others and moving together toward a common goal, depicted by the middle star. The motion of the arrows symbolizes Rock Hill’s progressive nature.

Rock Hill is known for its world-renowned sports facilities, rich history and genuine southern hospitality. Rock Hill offers something for everybody. Whether you're here for a tournament, festival or just passing through, we're sure you'll quickly learn why Rock Hill rocks!

Rock Hill has an undisputable passion for sport, one that will ensure that the city’s round of the 2019 UCI BMX Supercross World Cup will be the most exciting and entertaining BMX event possible.
